Re: Lynne Boyarsky v. New York University, Civ. A. No. 1:20-cv-00052
Plaintiff's Motion to Remand And Stipulation Withdrawing Claims With Prejudice

Dear Judge Failla:

This firm represents Defendant New York University ("NYU") in the above-referenced matter.

We write to respond to Plaintiff's motion to remand the case to the New York State Supreme Court. (See ECF Nos. 9-10). Counsel for the parties conferred, and Plaintiff has agreed to withdraw her claims arising under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e et seq. ("Title VII") with prejudice. Accordingly, the parties submit the attached Stipulation for Your Honor's consideration and approval. Upon entry of the attached Stipulation dismissing Plaintiff's federal claims with prejudice, NYU will not oppose Plaintiff's motion to remand.

We thank Your Honor for consideration of this submission and remain available should any questions arise.

Respectfully submitted,

Mark A. Saloman

WSACTIVE LLP:11231932.1

The Court is in receipt of Plaintiff's motion to remand this case to the New York State Supreme Court (Dkt. #9); the parties' stipulation dismissing Plaintiff's third cause of action, which was the only federal claim in this case (Dkt. #11-1), which the Court has now ordered; and Defendant's above letter indicating that upon the entry of the stipulation of partial dismissal, that Defendant would not oppose Plaintiff's motion to remand. (Dkt. #11). This case now contains no federal claims.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that this case be REMANDED back to New York State Supreme Court.
